TO THE PUBLIC.

THE Editor hopes that the LONDON COMPANION will, upon inspection, be found much completer than any other book of the kind hitherto published; and, being anxious to render it as generally serviceable as possible, he takes this method of soliciting information, not only in regard to such new Streets, Squares, Lanes, Courts, &c. that shall be erected, but also with respect to correcting any faults that may occur in this work, either arising from places mentioned more than once, situations erroneously described, wrong spelling of proper names, alterations occasioned by changing the appellations of, or pulling down any buildings in the metropolis and its vicinity.

All such communications left at the Publisher's will be carefully attended to.

LIST of Streets, Lanes, Public Buildings, &c. in LONDON and its Environs.

* * Str. stands for street; la. for lane; squ. for square; co. for court; yd. for yard; Westm. for Westminster; and Southw. for Southwark.

N.B. Many of the Streets, Lanes, Squares or other Buildings, when of a similar name, and situated nearly together, are placed under one head, as in the three first articles of the following List.

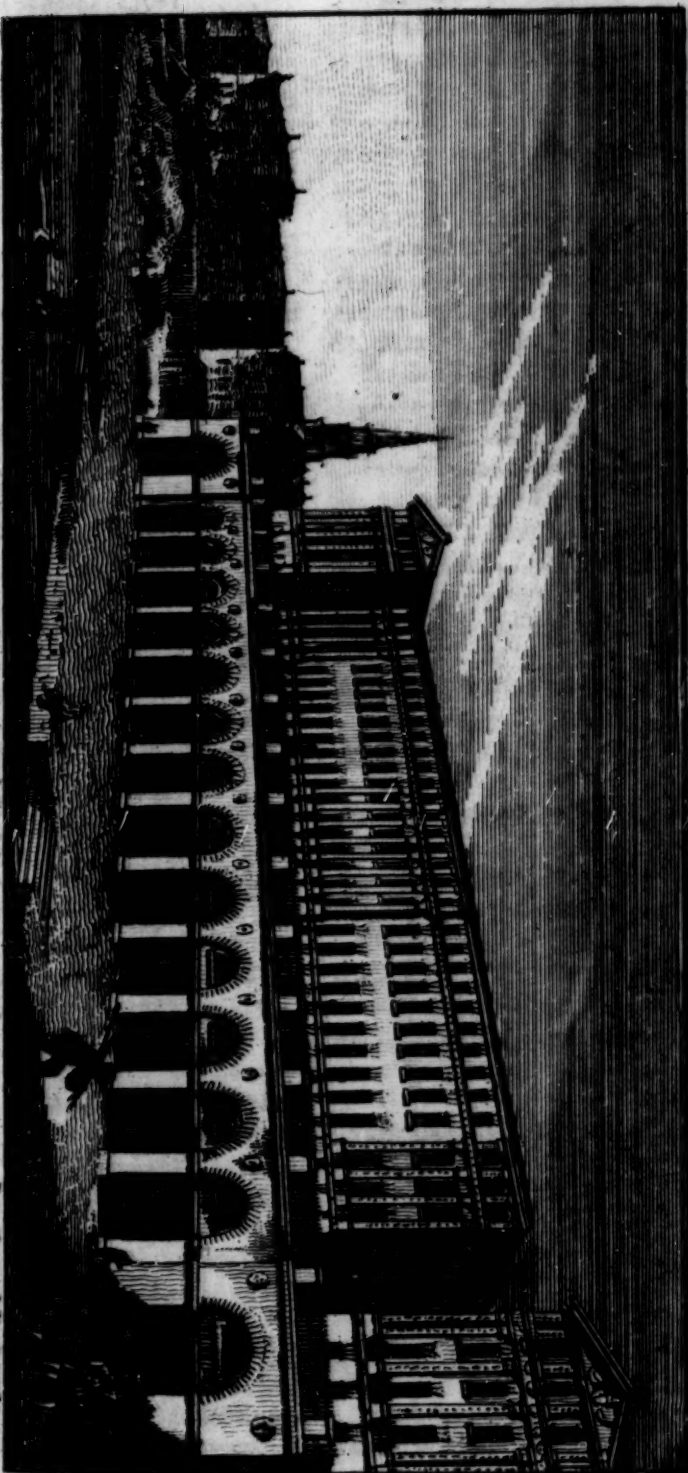

Those of which there are more than one of a name, are generally put all together, the stroke thus — denoting, that another street, &c. of the same name with the first mentioned, is situated near the place, the names of which immediately follow the said —; as there is one Adam and Eve Alley at Bermondsey, and another near West Smithfield.

Wherever the words Great and Little, New and Old, East and West, Upper and Lower, &c. occur, they refer only to the street, lane, &c. next succeeding the said words: as, for example, in Bell Alley the words Great and Little only refer to those in Coleman street and Grub street. The same is to be observed in regard to all such as are placed together, in the manner particularised in the first article: as for instance, Hare Marsh and street refer only to Brick lane.

Places and Buildings usually distinguished by Great, Little, New, Old, East, West, North, South, Outer, Inner, Middle, Upper, Higher, Lower, or by the word Saint, are all ranged in the following list, as if the beforementioned appellations were not applied to them.

GUIDE to Hackney Coaches, Chairs, and Boats.

TO THE PUBLIC.

THE necessity of having a knowledge of the extent of the different Fares for Hackney Coaches, &c. is too well known to be controverted; and experience shews how frequently disputes arise between hackney coachmen, &c. and their employers, generally attended with inconvenience and loss of time to both parties. It must have also occurred, that few even of those who are accustomed to use hackney coaches can fix many of the fares with certainty, except by the assistance of such a Guide as the following; for, when the distance is great, and depending on actual mensuration, it has generally been at the coachman's mercy to charge what he pleases. In that case, this work will be found of the greatest utility, particular care having been taken to mark the extent of every fare within the distance of eight miles; and beyond those limits the price will advance 6d. for every half-mile.—To render it the more convenient to those who frequent the most public places of entertainment, (particularly strangers,) a Table is annexed of those places and the fares from each of the stands of coaches, which will in a great measure prevent the imposition of coachmen, too frequently practised where they find any passenger unacquainted with their just demand.

It may be necessary to observe, that, where a particular street or distance is not marked, the coachman's demand may be easily ascertained by referring to what the fare is to the stand nearest the place where you are set down; and, in order to enable the public to form a more exact statement of the distance from place to place, an alphabetical Arrangement of the length of the most principal streets in London and Westminster is annexed.

At the end are the new Regulations of the Watermen's Fares, as settled by the Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London, and confirmed by His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated the 21st day of April, 1785.

ABSTRACTS of the Acts of Parliament relating to Hackney Coaches and Chairs, which passed the 9th and 10th of Queen Anne; were made perpetual the 1st of George I. and altered and amended the 7th, 24th, and 26th of George III.

THE Commissioners, not exceeding five, appointed by the King, shall regulate and license all Hackney Coaches and Chairs within the Bills of Mortality. The number of coaches are not to exceed 1000; every Proprietor paying 10s. per week, by monthly payments; and the number of Hackney Chairs are not to exceed 400, reserving a rent of 10s. a year to be paid quarterly.

No person shall drive or let to hire any hackney coach or coach-horses within the weekly bills, &c. without a licence from the Commissioners, upon forfeiture of 5l. nor carry any hackney chair for hire without such licence, upon forfeiture of 40s. and no horse shall be used in any hackney coach under the size of fourteen hands; and every licensed coach and chair shall have a number on each side; and if one person shall be licensed to keep several hackney coaches or chairs, he shall have distinct numbers; and no person shall put the same number on his coach or chair which is appointed for another, or shall deface the number, upon forfeiture of 5l.

The Commissioners may make bye-laws to bind the persons who have licences, and annex penalties for the better putting in execution these acts, and for the good government of the persons licensed.

The Commissioners shall, on application for licensing, give the preference to the widows of hackney men who die possessed of any licence, unless they neglect to apply within the space of twenty days.

No person shall ply or drive for hire with any coach, hearse, or coach-horses, to attend on any funeral in London, Westminster, or in the Bills of Mortality, except persons licensed by the Commissioners, on pain to forfeit 5l.

If any person shall drive a mourning coach or hearse to any funeral, except the same have a number fixed on the fore-standard, or in some other place to be appointed by the Commissioners, or except the same be the coach of some gentleman attending the master or any of the family, the Commissioners, upon information, may summon the driver, against whom, not appearing, they are impowered to proceed, and though no express hiring shall be proved, yet, unless the party appears and proves a previous order from the owner of such coach, &c. to attend at such funeral, it shall be adjudged as driving for hire, and the party shall forfeit 5l. to be recovered of the driver or undertaker of such funeral.

The Alderman of every Ward of the City, and every Justice of Peace, or Magistrate where the offence shall be committed, may inflict and levy the like penalties for any offences contrary to these Acts, as the Commissioners can. Provided that no person be punished twice for the same fault.

Every licensed coachman, plying for hire, shall be obliged and compellable, on every day of ought of the week, to go any where within the distance of ten miles from the Cities of London or Westminster; and every coachman plying for hire without a cheque-string placed in a proper part of his coach, shall forfeit 5s.

The following are the Rates all Coachmen and Chairmen are obliged to abide by, having their Option either of Distance or Time, viz.

H ackney coaches for one day of twelve hours	14	6
Any time not exceeding three quarters of an hour	—	10
Any time above three quarters, and not more than one hour	1	6
And for every period not exceeding twenty minutes, after the first hour	—	06

If kept beyond twelve hours, it must be considered as a coach in waiting, and therefore must be paid for according to the aforesaid rules for the time above the said twelve hours.

No hackney coachman shall take for his hire more than 1s. for any distance not exceeding one mile and a quarter; and 1s. 6d. for any greater distance not exceeding two miles; and so on to the extent of 10 miles from London (beyond which he is not obliged to go), increasing for every further distance not exceeding half a mile, at the rate of 6d. each.

Chairmen shall not take more than 1s. 6d. for the first hour, and 6d. for every half hour afterwards. 1s. for any distance not exceeding one mile, and 6d. for every half mile afterwards.

If any coachman or chairman shall refuse to go at, or exact more for his hire, than according to the above rates, he shall forfeit a sum not exceeding 3l. nor under 10s. and on misbehaviour, by abusive language or otherwise, the Commissioners may revoke his licence, or inflict a penalty not exceeding 3l. to the poor; and on non-payment, he shall be committed to some house of correction, and be kept to hard labour for thirty days.

If any person shall refuse to pay for, or shall deface any coach or chair, any Justice may grant his warrant to bring him before him; and on proof upon oath, may award satisfaction to the party, and on refusal to pay, may bind him over to the next sessions, where the same may be determined.

Rents and penalties to be levied by distress; and in default of distress, the party to be imprisoned till paid: and if any rent shall be unpaid for fourteen days, the Commissioners may revoke the licence.

Every licensed person, who shall neglect or refuse (being duly summoned for that purpose) to appear by himself or his renter, shall forfeit 10s. and if he shall neglect or refuse to appear, together with his renter, upon the third summons, the Commissioners may revoke the licence, and license another person in the room of such owner.

OBSERVATIONS necessary to be attended to.

THE distance is always reckoned from whence the coach is hired; so that if a coach is ordered from Charing cross to take up a fare at Exeter Change, the measurement begins at Charing cross. The following fares are all calculated from the head of the stand; so that the first or second coach should always be preferred, as the middle or further end will sometimes occasion a difference. If the coachman is obliged to turn, he is allowed to reckon 40 yards for that. Whenever a coach, chair, or boat, is hired, it should be always taken possession of before any mention is made of the place where it is wanted to go; and then, if the driver, &c. refuse to proceed, they are liable to be punished. If more than the fare is demanded, offer what is asked, but order the driver, &c. not to take more than his due at his peril; and if he should, take the number, and seek redress by applying to the Hackney-Coach Office, Somerset-place, in the Strand, or at Waterman's Hall, St. Mary-at-hill.

All and every new squares, buildings, and streets, within the several parishes of St. Mary-le-bone; St. George, Hanover square; St. George the Martyr, Queen-square; and St. George, Bloomsbury; within the county of Middlesex; and, also, all the several burying-grounds within five miles of the cities of London and Westminster, are deemed to be within the limits of the said cities, since the 24th of June, 1771.

Besides the following (which are the common stands), a coach may stand and ply in any street that is 30 feet in width from curve to curve (except St. James's street and Pall-mall, before the Mansion-house, and before the Royal Exchange), the following regulations being observed, viz.

That, in Cornhill, not more than eight hackney coaches shall stand, viz. seven between the end of Gracechurch-street and Finch-lane, and one between the end of Freeman's-court and Finch-lane.

In Leadenhall-street, three coaches; between the west end of the India-house, and the passage leading to the Green-market, Leadenhall.

In Cheap-side, between the end of Bucklersbury, and the end of Ironmonger-lane, three coaches.

In King-street, Guildhall, five coaches, viz. three beginning at the end of Trump-street, towards Cateaton street, and two on the other side of Trump-street, towards Cheap-side.

In Fleet-street, between Temple-bar and Chancery-lane, two coaches, and not more than one between the said lane and the west end of St. Dunstan's church.

All hackney-coachmen are to take special care not to place their coaches on the said stands nearer to each other than 12 yards, nor within 12 yards of any cross-street. Any coachman, presuming to place his coach otherwise than is hereby directed, or exceeding the number in those places which are limited, will be fined (as the Act directs), for every offence, 10s.

The hire of the whole Tilt-boat	—	1	2 6

By the Statute of 10 Geo. 2. it is enacted, that no tilt-boat, row-barge or wherry, shall take at one time more than thirty-seven passengers, and three more by the way; nor any other boat or wherry more than eight, and two more by the way; nor any ferry-boat or wherry allowed to work on Sundays, any more than eight passengers, on pain of forfeiting, for the first offence 5*l.* for the second offence 10*l.* and for the third offence to be disfranchised for twelve months from working on the river, and from enjoying the privileges of the company: and in case any person shall be drowned, where a greater number of passengers is taken in than allowed, the watermen shall be deemed guilty of felony, and transported as felons.

If any water or wherry-man, wilfully or negligently, loses the tide from Billingsgate to Gravesend, or from thence to Billingsgate, by putting ashore for other passengers, or by loitering by the way, so that the first passengers shall be set on shore two miles short of the place to which they were bound, such passengers shall be discharged from paying any thing for their passage.

Any waterman who takes more than the above rates, is liable to forfeit 40*s.* and suffer a half year's imprisonment.

Any waterman who sets up a sail between Lambeth and London Bridge, forfeits for each offence 5*s.*

Complaints against watermen to be made at their hall, St. Mary Hill, Lower Thames Street.
